- We enjoyed the after-school sports sessions
- My son has joined the Juniors and settled really well. He hasn't shown any signs or told me about any worries.
- Yes. My son was a little unsure as he was aware of his sister moving on but the sports event etc all helped to reassure him. Thank you.
- Multiple visits. Buddy ahead of starting.
- She was really upset when she started but the help that was put in place for her was really good.
- He was excited to come over to the Juniors.
- My son wanted to walk there and back alone after day one. He felt confident with where he was going and needed to be.
- My daughter was nervous on transition days but they helped her feel much more confident about starting in September. She also liked her buddy.
- Visits from the Infant school helped with transition nerves.
- The Infant graduation was fantastic, making the transition far more fun than previous years with my older child.
- Transition visits were really positive and helpful.
- I thought the efforts made by the school to transition were great. It made a huge difference getting to know the school and teachers.
- Visiting from the Infants really helped.
- My daughter really enjoyed her visits to the Juniors.
- Visits made the move easy.
- My child felt excited and ready to start Juniors and enjoyed visiting the school ahead of September.

6. Comments;

- It gave an insight as to what they would be doing and what was available.
- Both parents had the chance to meet the teacher in the classroom
- Meet the teacher evening was very good to begin to get to know who staff are and it was lovely to see the classroom.
- All good events for transition
- I was already familiar with the Juniors but my daughter enjoyed the events.
- Good to meet the teacher.
- My daughter was excited to explore her new school. It made her confident with the transition.
- Good to meet teachers and get to know school before starting.
- We were given the opportunity to visit the school when we arrived in the country before the end of the summer term. Our children appreciated this which reassured our whole family of the ethos and care evident in the school.
- We enjoyed having a little sports day with the Year 3 teachers – nice way to meet them and very fun.
- Yes, however the dependence on emails for communication and number of events/emails can lead to things being missed.
- There was lots of opportunities for parents, however for working parents these were not an option (sports events).

Transition between the Infant school and the Junior school could be improved by;

- Perhaps a little more communication on what was done on transition days to aid parent/child conversation
- No improvement from us, it all went smoothly.
- Nothing, great process. My daughter also said 'nothing'!
- Nothing, it has improved immensely.
- My daughter's teacher has got to understand her quickly and has reached out when needed.
- Was happy with move.
- Nothing. All doing a great job.
- We have found general communication (ie parentmail) much less here.
- No improvements needed. Fantastic school!
